The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

LONDON, September 20.

TUESDAY Morning an Expreſs arrived at the Admiralty-Office, with Advice, that his Majeſty's Ships the Rocheſter and Cheſter were ſafely arriv'd off the Start from St. Helena. from whence they ſail'd the 10th of July, with the following Ships under their Convoy, who were all arrived, viz. the Marlborough, Smith, from Bencoolen,; the Harrington, Jenkins, from China and Bombay; the Walpole, Bodham, from Borneo and China; the Duke of Lorrain, Compton, from Fort St. George and China; the Defence, Coates, from Mocha; the Shaftſbury, Booky, and the Grantham, Hale, both from Coaſt and Bay; the Britannia, Somner, from St. Helena and Bencoolen; the Richmond, Weſton, from Bengal; the Lynn, Gilbert, from Madeira and Coaſt and Bay; the Houghton, Worth, and the Auguſta, Townſend, from China.

When they ſail'd from St. Helena, neither the Hæſlingfield, Cooke, the Normanton, Keymys, nor the Sommerſet, Holmes, were arriv'd, tho' hourly expected; ſo that 'tis doubted whether they will ſail for Europe this Year. They had a very fine Paſſage, being only two Months and ſix Days in the Voyage.

By theſe Ships we hear, that Capt. Langworth in the Prince William, and Capt. Shutter in the Warwick, were order'd to ſtay in India this Year. They add, that Capt. Jenkins, in the Harrington, clear'd himſelf from Angria's People after a ſharp Engagement of twelve Hours, wherein the Pyrates loſt a great many Men.

And we hear that the Honourable Eaſt-India Company intend to reward the Officers and Seamen belonging to the Harrington, for their Bravery againſt Angria; in which Engagement they had the good Fortune to have but one Man wounded.

The Fair Henly, Capt. Dowglaſs, arriv'd off Dover on Monday laſt, from Oporto. Before ſhe left that Place, there had been Advice given of the Time of her Departure to a Spaniſh Privateer, who lay in wait for her; but luckily his Majeſty's Ship the Bonetta Sloop came up with the ſaid Privateer, and took her; by which means Capt. Dowglaſs came ſafe.

The Contractors, according to Agreement, have deliver'd into the Victualling-Office 100 Tons of Britiſh Brandy for the Uſe of the Navy, which with all Expedition is to be diſpatch'd away to the Fleet.

Octo. 7. Letters from Naples inform us, that his Sicilian Majeſty's new born Daughter was chriſtened the 26 of laſt Month by the Pope's Nuncio, and named Mary-Elizabeth.

The 11th Inſtant a Courier arrived at Berlin from Saltzdahl, with Advice, that Prince Auguſtus William, the King of Pruſſia's Brother, was affianced two Days before with the Princeſs Louiſa Amelia of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle. They are much about the ſame Age, the Princeſs being born the 26th of January 1712. and the Prince on the 11th of Auguſt following.

They write from Dover, that the St. George, Baſely, is arrived there in eight Days from Oporto, who brings Advice, that his Majeſty's Sloop the Bonetta has taken and carried into Oporto, a Spaniſh Privateer of 10 Guns, and 50 Men.

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated the 18th of October.

Ever ſince the States General cauſed their Anſwer to the Declaration of the French Court to be deliver'd to the Marquis de Fenelon, that Ambaſſador has been altogether tranquil. The Deputies of their High Mightineſſes, in a Conference which they had with him a few Days ago, gave him to underſtand in clear and expreſs Terms, that the Re-publick having been inform'd that the Court of France had given Orders for, and that People were actually employ'd in repairing the Fortifications of Dunkirk, their High

Migh-

Mightineſſes could not reconcile his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had very lately cauſed to be made here, namely, that he had no other View of ſending his Squadrons of Obſervation into America; than to ſupport Spain in her Poſſeſſions there, purſuant to the Treaty of Utrecht, ſeeing the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Fortifications of the Port of Dunkirk would be rendering one of the moſt eſſential Articles of that ſame Treaty of no effect; and that it was not to be ſuppos'd that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, at a Time when he was juſtifying the Steps he had taken in favour of Spain, from the Obligation he was under of maintaining certain Conditions in the Treaty of Utrecht, would, at the ſame time, make an Infringement of others of them: Their High Mightineſſes could not therefore avoid, in Caſe his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty thought ſeriouſly of putting Dunkirk into its former Condition, making upon this Occaſion Repreſentations to that Monarch. The Marquis de Fenelon anſwer'd the Deputies of their High Mightineſſes, that he perceiv'd very plainly, that form the Solicitation of the Court of Great-Britain, which was very loud in its Complaints of what was doing at Dunkirk, the Re-publick had determin'd to make Repreſentations to his Court upon this Subject: That he would however inform the King his Maſter, with their High Mightineſſes Intention; but that for his Part, he very much queſtion'd whether the Court of France had really conceiv'd any Thoughts of repairing the Fortifications of that Port, becauſe his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty was too equitable to break his Engagements. Notwithſtanding theſe Pretences, whereon little or no Streſs is laid, the Members of the Regency have had certain Intelligence, that beſides the Foot which is already in that Place, ſome Cavalry is ſpeedily expected there: that three or four Batteries are actually erected; that ſome Chaloupes are arming; that the Duke of Boufflers and the Marquis de Givry, with a great Number of Workmen, are buſily employ'd; and that the Engliſh who live there, have been order'd to retire from the Town in a very ſhort and fix'd Time, under Pretence of its having been diſcover'd that they deſign'd to ſet fire to it. Tho' France pretends to juſtify thoſe Meaſures, her Arguments are ſo weak and ridiculous, that People are ſurpriz'd ſhe is ſo hardy as to make uſe of them.

London, Octo. 13. A Conſultation of Phyſicians has been held here on the Caſe of the Earl of Waldgrave, who is in a declining State of Health, and Dr. Jernegan is ſet out for Paris to attend his Lordſhip.

They write from Briſtol, that the beginning of laſt Week, Capt Fitche, Commander of the Ruby Man of War, comming from his Cruize, about two Leagues to the Eaſtward of Lunday, unfortunately fell over board, and was drown'd.

Paris, Octo. 15. We have receiv'd Advice from Canada, that the Illinois, who had taken up Arms againſt the French, dreading the Preparations that were making to attack them, have at laſt determin'd to ſubmit; that a Treaty of Peace has been concluded with them, and that they have given Hoſtages for the faithful Obſervance of it on their Part. The preſent great Scarcity of Corn has determin'd the Court to lay out ſeven Millions abroad on that Commodity. Tho' there is great Talk of an approaching Augmentation in the Army, yet we don't hear that any Orders have as yet been iſſued on that Head.

October, 16. They write from Madrid, that a French Ship which arrived at Cadiz the 11th of September, reported, that Admiral Haddock was come back to Gibraltar with part of his Squadron; the reſt of it remains at Part Mahon: And that upon Advice, that the Engliſh were meditaing an Enterprize upon Buenos Ayres, or ſome Places in the South Sea, the Court had ordered ſix Men of War to be fitted up at Cadiz, and they ſay, they have ſince received Advice that they are ſailed to thoſe Parts.

Other Advices from Madrid ſay, that thoſe ſix Ships have not yet ſet Sail, and that it is thought they are to join the Squadron actually fitting out at Cadiz; and that they have received Advice, that the Toulon Squadron paſſed the Streights of Gibraltar the 15th of laſt Month, ſteering with a fair Wind for Weſt-Indies. As they have heard nothing about the Breſt Squadron ſince it appeared off of Cape Finiſter; they dont doubt but it is alſo gone to America.

By our Advices from Liſle we find, that the Damage done there by the Fire which lately broke out in the Jeſuits College, and ſpread to ſeveral other Houſes, is computed at 1,000,000 of Livres.

Letters from Paris ſay, that the Earl of Waldegrave is in ſo bad a State of Health, that the Phyſicians have adviſ'd him to return to England, tho' 'tis much doubted whether he'll recover; and he's ſoon expected over.

Octo. 15. There are Letters in Town which adviſe, that Lord Cathcart, &c. were under ſail on Sunday Night, with a fair Wind, bound for America.

Octo.

Octo. 18. Several Letters by Yesterday's Post advise, that Lord Cathcart, &c. were seen on Thursday under Sail for America.

BOSTON, October 30. 1740.

Extract of a Letter from Newfoundland,

" We have an Account here by a Vessel from " Gibraltar, That Capt. Dumaresque had car- " ried into that Place a large French Ship bound " for Ferrol with 300 Butts of Malaga Wine and " other valuable Goods; which Goods were Con- " demned as lawful Prize. He hath likewise ta- " ken several other Prizes.

On Tuesday last arrived here Capt. Stevens in 23 Days from Lisbon, by whom we have Advice that Capt. Seager in a Billander of this Town, and Capt. Tresse in a Vessel belonging to Philadelphia, were both taken going into Lisbon by a Spanish Barca Longa, both Vessels were carried into Lisbon and Sold there with their Cargoes and Grain.

Extract of a Letter from Lisbon, dated Nov. 12.

' A Vessel that came in Yesterday in nine Days from Portsmouth, brings Advice of the King's safe Arrival in England; and that Sir Chaloner Ogle's Squadron was sail'd, with the Transports; as likewise of the Emperor's Death, which we have here this Day by an Express.'

By a Vessel from Madeira we are inform'd, that Capt. Davis in a Rhode-Island Privateer, had carried into that Place three Prizes; One of which sunk at her Anchor, and altho' they used all possible Means to weigh her again, yet they were not able to effect the same.

The Pictures of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of immortal Memory, at full Length, (which were done in London by the best Hands, at the Charge of the Province) are come over in Capt. Fones. They are reckon'd to be fine Pieces, and on Saturday last they were put up in the Council-Chamber.

PHILADELPHIA, January 8.

Our River has been fast some time, And we hear from Lewes, that 'tis all Ice towards the Sea as far as Eye can reach. Tuesday and Wednesday last are thought to have been the coldest Days we have had these many Years.

Great Quantities of English Half-pence being Imported here, since the falling of our Exchange, to be pass'd as Pennies, some considerable Dealers were apprehensive we should be overstock'd with them, and began last Week to refuse them otherwise than at the Rate of five for four pence. Their Example being follow'd by many of the Shopkeepers; while others continued to take them for pence apiece, it occasion'd Considerable Confusion in small Dealings. And the Bakers refusing to make any more Bread 'till the Money was settled, the Mob rose on Friday Night and went round the Town breaking the Windows of several Merchants and others, and very much disturbed the City. They began to assemble again the Night following; but by the Vigilance and Resolution of some of the Magistrates, they were timely surpres's'd, and the City has since remain'd quiet.
